

I think further review should be given to any changes in sharing the FM frequencies. I would contend that we have gummed up police frequencies by overusing the 800mhz ranges, etc. This is now jamming up emergency calls. We need to more tightly control and review how this is being administered for LPFM also.